Traidcraft

Dear friends of Fair Trade - welcome back to Traidcraft!

In the last six months I have been able to eat up the stock of tea, coffee, biscuits, etc, and also order further supplies for my own use. Now I am planning how all of us can support the producers across the world, many of whom are struggling to support their families in the current situation.

Traidcraft itself has recently issued its new catalogue of autumn and Christmas products and is ready to go! It is full of attractive goods – food and gifts – and there are plenty of Christmas cards and Advent Calendars to view; it would be wonderful to be able to make an order for these!

The first order will be made on 15th October - you can find all of the details on the order form on our website by clicking here.

Or email traidcraft@stmarytwick.org.uk for more information.

Looking forward to hearing from you!

Church Street Twickenham Pedestrian Zone – Review

The Council has recently decided to extend the temporary pedestrian zone along Church Street until at least mid-January 2021. The Council are currently seeking feedback on how the scheme has worked and whether it should be introduced permanently.
