JESUS SAID: "WHERE TWO OR THREE ARE GATHERED TOGETHER IN MY NAME, THERE I AM ALSO, IN THE MIDST OF THEM."

Welcome by Jeff Hopkin Williams, parish priest at St Mary's Twickenham

We light our candles,
And say together:

Eternal God, who made each Sabbath Day
To shine with the brightness of Your Son's true light,
Set us aflame with the fire of your love
And bring us to the radiance of your heavenly glory.
This we ask through Jesus Christ, our Lord,
AMEN.

Making our peace with God and with each other:

Lord Jesus,
You called us to repent and gave your life for us upon the cross to free us from our sins.

Priest: Lord have mercy
ALL: LORD HAVE MERCY

You taught us that love is the fulfilling of the law, help us to be more loving toward others and forgive us for those times when we have not been loving.

Priest: Christ have mercy
ALL: CHRIST HAVE MERCY

You showed us that we are called to serve you by serving others.
Help us to reach out to those who need us with love, generosity and compassion.

Priest: Lord have mercy
ALL: LORD HAVE MERCY

Priest: May the One who has created us to live in harmony with Himself and with others, free us and forgive us from all that prevents us from being the people He is calling us to be.
This we ask in Jesus' name.

ALL: AMEN

Homily: Fr. Jeff

The Intercessions

Prayer in a Pandemic, which we all say together:

May the healing power of Christ be with those who are suffering.
May the reassuring peace of Christ be with those who are frightened.
May the compassion of Christ be with those anxious for loved ones.
May the arms of Christ embrace all those in anguish, pain or need.
May the strengthening Spirit of Christ be with our doctors, nurses and carers.
May the discernment of Christ inform those researching into a vaccine.
May the wisdom of Christ be with those making life changing decisions.
May the resurrection power of Christ reach out to the dying.
May the comforting power of Christ enfold those who are grieving.
May the spirit of new life inspire those who are recovering.
May the love of Christ fill our hearts with love for one another.
And may the Blessing of Almighty God, Father, Son and Holy Spirit,
Flow into our lives and the lives of all those for whom we pray.
Amen.

As we seek to know Communion with Christ and Communion with each other, we keep a time to remember Christ, in the way He invited His first disciples to do in the Upper Room.

Prayer, which we are all invited to say together:

Lord, as we eat this bread and drink from this cup,
May we know your saving presence
Flowing into our lives anew.
Unite us with you and unite us with each other,
This we ask in the power of your name.
AMEN.

Introduction: Fr. Jeff

We say together:

“Risen Lord Jesus, as once you said, ‘This is my body, broken for you, I am with you always, even to the end of time’, so now, be present with us and bless this moment and this bread, with the touch of your Holy Spirit.” Amen.

“Risen Lord Jesus, as once you said, ‘This is my blood, shed for you, I am with you always, even to the end of time,’ so now, be present with us and bless this moment and this wine, with the touch of your Holy Spirit.” Amen.

Conclusion: Fr. Jeff

Moment of Communion.

Prayer:

Risen Lord Jesus,
You meet us today in our own homes,
Spread across our parish and beyond;
With our families and living alone.
In the power of your Holy Spirit,
Unite us with you and unite us with one another,
That we may be your people,
Equipped and empowered,
Blessed and filled, with your Risen Presence,
Who, like the early disciples who witnessed the Risen Lord
May be ready to spread the good news of your love to others.
This we ask in the power of your Holy Name.
AMEN.

We recommit ourselves to helping to build Christ's kingdom in the opportunities and challenges in which we find ourselves, in the power of the Risen Lord, as we say together:

The Lord's Prayer

The Blessing

The Peace

Thank you for being part of this Service.

May the presence of the Risen Lord and His Life-giving Spirit continue to be with you.

Blessings and best wishes
